OBJECT:

Earn 50 points before any of the other players or teams do. Who are we kidding? The real goal is to embarrass yourself in front of your friends, and to watch them do the same!

SET UP:

Shuffle the cards in the DO THIS deck and place face down within reach of all players. Then do the same with the SAY THIS deck. Note: Keep the DO THIS and the SAY THIS cards in separate decks.

Players should sit in a circle “boy-girl” (or as close as you can). If playing in teams, alternate team members so you’re sitting directly across from your teammate.

THE CARDS:

Most cards have a specific task and an “Awkward-Meter” point value between 1 and 5. The more awkward your task, the more points it’s worth! After each turn, place your cards in a discard pile so they cannot be reused again during that game.

LET'S PLAY!

The player most likely to NOT be embarrassed by the cards in this game may go first.

Players take turns, going clockwise around the circle. During your turn, you must draw one DO THIS card and one SAY THIS card.

You must then perform your “Awkward Moment” – to earn all points, you must do what’s on the DO THIS card while saying what’s on the SAY THIS card!

EXAMPLE:

If your DO THIS task is “Scratch your crotch” (for 3 points) and your SAY THIS task is “Bark like a dog” (for 1 point), you can earn 4 points for successfully completing both tasks.

If you're too embarrassed to perform any task(s), you may decline to do either or both of them.

However, you'll forfeit your chance to earn the points on those card(s). And if you're playing in teams, your teammate will hate you forever. NO HALF-ASSING IT... do your moment like you mean it!

After each “Awkward Moment,” everyone (who isn’t on your team) must vote on whether you successfully completed your task(s). If the MAJORITY of them give you a “thumbs up,” you’ll earn points for each successfully completed task.

Should the remaining players (JUDGING PANEL) agree that the content on the card was successfully represented by the player or team, fill in the scoreboard for the point value on the card(s).

SPECIALTY CARDS

There are 3 types of specialty cards, which trigger exceptions to the rules:

1. PICK YOUR POISON

Draw two more cards from the same deck. You'll have the option to perform either task as part of your "Moment," potentially earning the point value of your chosen card.

2. DOUBLE OR NADA

Draw another card. The value of that card only is doubled, but the opposing players must UNANIMOUSLY agree that you completed the task to earn that card's points. But if even one player disagrees, you'll get zero points for that task.

If you happen to select a DOUBLE OR NADA card from both decks, the value of BOTH cards is doubled.

If you select another DOUBLE OR NADA card during your re-draw, you must discard it and select another card (sorry - there's no QUADRUPLE OR NADA!)

3. ALL PLAY

If an ALL PLAY Card is drawn from EITHER deck, that player must draw another card from the same deck to determine what task will be performed. Then EVERYONE gets a chance to perform the DO THIS and SAY THIS tasks. (For team play, each team must nominate one member to perform both tasks.)

Players take turns performing their version of that “Awkward Moment” for the group, as convincingly as they possibly can.

Afterwards, all players must vote on who did the best job.
(You may NOT vote for yourself or anyone on your own team!)
The winner earns the points for themselves or their team.

Once the ALL PLAY is complete, whoever drew the ALL PLAY card draws again, so they get their own turn.

NOTE: Only one SPECIALTY CARD may be played per turn. If you draw an additional specialty card, discard it and continue drawing until you draw a normal task card.

WINNING:

The first player or team to 50 points wins!
